Hello, I'm Mochammad Aditya Pratama Satria, or you can call me Radit. I'm a graphic designer based in Jakarta, Indonesia. As you know that is so many different styles and form about design that will continue to evolve and change over time.

As a person who highly interest with art and design i'm always seeking for a new skills, knowledge, ideas, and inspiration to improve myself. I'm someone who is fast learner and i love to pay attention to little detail.

Talking about my speciality as a graphic designer, I specialized in digital imaging as you can see from my latest project, but of course as a graphic designer i like to improve my illustration skills, package design, and etc.

And i'm prepared myself to do my best to achieve and unlock new skills about designs. Here is my latest project, hope you enjoy! :)
